

Sayings of Catherine McAuley

We have one solid comfort amidst this little tripping about: our hearts can always be in the same place, centered in God, for whom alone we go forward or stay back.

The Lord and Master of our House and Home is a faithful provider. Let us never desire more than enough - He will give us that and a blessing.

Try to meet all with peace and ease

Prayer will do more (to solve our difficulties) than all the money in the Bank of Ireland. Let us pray well and never grow weary.

Lord Jesus, implant your love in my heart. It is all I desire in this world or in the next.

In silence and quiet, the devout soul becomes familiar with God.

The Mercy International Centre Shop will be at the Symposium if you wish to purchase Mercy books, CDs, cards, pens etc.

“She was beautiful, she was daring and she was rich. Catherine Elizabeth McAuley was an heiress with a difference. Unlike most young women in her position, it never occurred to her that she should travel the world, visiting exotic places. Instead, she travelled the back lanes and alleyways of nineteenth century Dublin city. She sought out the poor, the sick, the homeless and those who had lost all hope of ever rising out of their dreadful, miserable conditions. This gentle woman of mercy had a plan to change all this. God had a plan too.”

Daring to be Different, by Anne Reid
