

Our Lady of Grace

Some of the chosen Sisters were: Srs. Evelyn Cleary (known then as DePazzi), Brigid Anne Carter (known then as Conleth), Helen Scarry (known then as Romanus) Bridie Hoban (known then as Clement). Sr. Frances McMyler joined OLG for 1972 - 1973. The parish had a well-established after-school Religious Education program for the children of the Public School system, and some Sisters volunteered to help prepare the children for the sacraments as well as being Ministers of the Eucharist and on Parish committees. In 1977, Mary Potter joined the community, Maura Callaghan joined 1978 - 1986, and Mary Kelly joined Our Lady of Grace 1980 -1982. Catherine Egan joined the community/parish in 1989, and Geraldine Farrell in 1989 - 1994.
