

Travellers – Tuam

All the Religious in the town helped with the project and the following year the children were admitted to the Primary School. They were helped with food and school uniforms. More houses were built but the Sisters continued to provide a hot meal for them for some years.