

Education in Collooney

From 1923 – 1928 three rooms on the ground floor of the convent were used as a Primary School for girls.

A new girls' Primary School, Scoil Mhuire gan Smál, was built in 1928. The Sisters taught in the Primary School until 2003. In 2014, this school amalgamated with St. Joseph's Boys school to form Scoil Mhuire agus Iosaf under the trusteeship of the Diocese of Achonry.
