

Formation

After the Chapter of 1976, the Novitiate in Sligo was moved to St. Catherine's in Roscommon Town. It was near Donamon Castle where the Novices could avail of courses in spirituality. Live-in weekends were offered to those who wished to join the Diocese. A house was opened in 8 Cleveragh Road in Sligo, offering greater scope for ministry to the Sisters in formation. St. Catherine's then became a house for a small community.
