

St. Anne's Public Laundry

It was a steam and electric laundry and served much of East Mayo. Its purpose was to give local employment and prevent immigration. This electric steam laundry was a modern landmark. It had its power house in the Convent grounds generating its own electricity and using modern machinery. In 1969, the business was leased to local people to continue the enterprise.